

www.nationalparks.ge

Hiking Trails

National Parks Georgia

Download the Travel App of National Parks Georgia

Hiking makes traveling interesting and full of adventure.

The network of national parks Georgia includes more than 100 of various categories, equipped with international standards, the length of which is over 2000 kilometers. Trails can be traveled on foot, on horseback, by bicycle and by car. In the national parks Georgia you will find rich, unique and different landscapes, a diversity of flora and fauna.

www.nationalparks.ge
CAFE
National Parks Georgia

Atsunta Trail

Tusheti National Park

Length: 75 km

Difficulty: medium, hiking, riding

Duration: 5 days

Unprecedentedly beautiful nature, a true center of traditions, wonderfully warm environment, people and very diverse impressions - this is Tusheti! One of the most popular routes for hikers starts from the visitor center in the village of Omalo and goes through the valley of the opposite, where you will visit the beautiful village of Dartlo with its old castle houses and architecture. Also, the village of Farsma and its ancient towers. Village Girev and village Chontio residents. After that, the trail climbs to the Atsunta pass, from where you can see fabulous views of the beautiful nature of Tusheti and Khevsureti. From the Atsunta pass, the trail goes to Khevsureti and ends in Shatili through the village of Mutso.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Trail of Black Rocks Lake

Lagodekhi National Park

Length: 42 km

Difficulty: medium, hiking, riding

Duration: 3 days

The first protected area in Georgia and the Caucasus, landscapes and nature that attract many scientists from around world - these are Lagodekhi Protected areas! The Black Rocks Lake trail is one of the most interesting trails in Georgia and boasts beautiful views of the Alazani Valley and the Caucasus Mountains. While traveling on the trail, you will pass through the unique groves of hornbeam trees, which is quite rare in the Caucasus. On the same route, you will meet small iceage lakes and swamps embroidered by magical nature. The main sight of the trail is the Black Rocks Lake. On this tour, the fabulous nature changes from 400 to 3500 m. to the height, and if you walk carefully, it is possible to meet rare representatives of the animal world.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Tba Tbikeli

Kintrishi National Park

Distance: 32 km

Difficulty: medium, hiking

Duration: 2 days

Kintrishi National Park is located just 24 km from the coastal resort of Kobuleti in Georgia and is included in the UNESCO World Natural Heritage list. One of its most popular hiking routes is the lake trail, which starts in the village of Tskhemvani at the visitor shelter near an arched bridge. The path continues toward the ruins of Khinotsminda Church, passing through untouched beech forests mixed with coniferous trees, and includes a stop at Khino Waterfall. The trail then ascends into the subalpine zone, where Caucasian rhododendrons and diverse meadow flowers grow, and where the rare Caucasian grouse can be found. The route ends at Tbikeli Lake, located at an altitude of 2,000-2,200 meters above sea level. The lake has an elongated, oval shape and is covered with snow and ice during winter.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Panorama Trail

Borjomi-Kharagauli National Park

Distance: 34 km

Difficulty: difficult, hiking,riding

Duration: 2 days

Travel to the outstanding Georgian resort of Borjomi, famous for its world-famous mineral water, and discover one of the largest national parks in Europe. Visiting the Borjom-Kharagauli National Park is a good idea at any time of the year - the Panorama trail is one of the outstanding destinations. The trail is circular and has a length of 34 km, so it is necessary to split 2 days to walk it. Therefore, you can better feel the uniqueness of the trail, enjoy nature, breathe fresh air, and discover all the hidden secrets. "Panorama Trail" is distinguished by its special beauty. You will slowly move towards the heights and pass through the alpine forests, which have not been touched by human hands. The trail offers amazing views of the coniferous forests, home of the red deer, the pride of the national park.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Truso Gorge Trail

Kazbegi National Park

Distance: 25 km

Difficulty: medium difficulty

Duration: 6 hours

A glacier rising into the sky, Gergeti trinity, the visiting card of Georgia, beautiful waterfalls, alpine meadows, snow-covered peaks - you will discover these magical places during your trip to Kazbegi National Park. Truso valley - located in the valley of the Tergi river, on the northern slope of the Caucasus. In the valley, there are historical and cultural monuments, abandoned villages, travertines precipitated from mineral waters, glacial and river deposits, and birch forests are found in fragments. The path of the Thruso Gorge begins in the village. Kobi, it follows the Truso valley by road, passes through the villages of the Truso valley and ends in the village of Suatis. The last 18 km, from the village of Okrokan to the village of Suatis, is possible to pass both by car and on foot.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

“Samepo Ridge” Trail

Algeti National Park

Distance: 16 km

Difficulty: medium, hiking

Duration: 6-7 hours

If you just want to get out of the city, looking for som thing close by, in nature and peace, 90 km from capital Tbilisi you can visit Algeti National Park. The main entrance of the national park is located near the Cathedral of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary of Manglisi. The 16-kilometer, circular tourist trail “Samepo Ridge” starts from here, and continues in the direction of the picnic area, through the beautiful Martalkhevi, to Didi Namtvriani village. If you enjoy traveling on foot, here you will be filled with several sensations at the same time. For 6-7 hours you follow the path, experience nature, wander away in your mind and sense the way you emerge as part of your wonderful nature. The valley of the Algeti National Park and the mountainous views covered with mixed forest from the viewpoints on the trail will fill you with incredible impressions.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Chestnut Trail

Mtirala National Park

Distance: 7 km

Difficulty: easy, hiking

Duration: 1 day

Mtirala National Park, with its unique and special nature, is internationally recognized, it is included in the list of UNESCO World Natural Heritage. In the territory of the park, you can enjoy one and two-day hiking routes. You will have an opportunity to arrange a picnic by using a fire pit. Wandering wildlife, flying through the sky with the birds on a zip line, thrilling experience in Rope Park - Mtirala National Park is a place to create unforgettable memories. If you've always dreamed of trekking through the jungle, it's almost possible to make that dream come true at Mtirala National Park.

www.nationalparks.ge

National Parks Georgia

Pantishara-Datviskhevi-Bugha Square-Mijniskure Trail

Vashlovani National Park

Distance: 200 km from town Dedoplistskaro

Difficulty: difficult, car tour (off - road vehicle) integrated with hiking, circular

Duration: 1 day

Open fields, meditative rocks, a semi-desert where you will feel like a western character, a Gazelle domain, and primitive and wild natural landscapes, all of which can be found in Vashlovani National Park. One of the main attractions of the route is the fossilized flora and fauna, which takes you on a journey through the history of Georgia. Visit the viewpoint of Vashlovani, from where you can see foundation pit and Pistachio tree groves. After passing the Pantishara Valley, head towards the Samukhi Valley where you may be lucky enough to see Gazelles in the distance.

www.nationalparks.ge

National Parks Georgia

Bugdasheni Lake Trail

Javakheti National Park

Distance: 4 km

Duration: 1.5 - 2 hours

Difficulty: easy, hiking

Javakheti is a region with a special historical past. It is a unique combination of outstanding and attractive nature, history, culture and ethnic diversity. Javakheti is the region of lakes. Many small and medium-sized lakes have formed here in the mountainous, mostly forestless landscape, including the largest lake of Georgia - Para vani. Bugdasheni Lake is one of the outstanding hiking destinations. On the way to Bugdasheni Lake, you can also visit the village of Gorelovka, where you can enjoy the colorful and different architecture of Doukhobors (Spiritual Christian ethnoreligious group). Bugdasheni Lake is one of the best places for nature lovers and travel lovers. The environment is characterized by an abundance of migratory birds and a pristine beach.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Mtavarangelozi Mountain Trail

Machakhela National Park

Length: 10.5 km

Difficulty: easy, car-integrated pedestrian

Duration: 1 day

Machakhela National Park is one of the most interesting places in Adjara just 27 km away from city Batumi. Here, you have the opportunity to start your visit at the Visitor Center and its exhibition space, and continue by exploring beautiful waterfalls, rich historical-cultural monuments and local traditions while traveling by bicycle or on foot through the beautiful nature of Machakhela National Park. The main wealth of Machakhela National Park is its unique nature. Chestnut, beech and hornbeam trees will be your main guides on the Mtavarangelozi Mountain trail, and you will enjoy amazing panoramic views from the mountain. The main appeal of Machakhela Valley is the coexistence of its beautiful nature and local people, creating an amazing history and culture that is clearly reflected in every family and person.

www.nationalparks.ge

MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION
AND AGRICULTURE OF GEORGIA

LEPL AGENCY OF
PROTECTED AREAS
OF GEORGIA

NATIONAL
PARKS GEORGIA