www.nationalparks.ge

Canyons & Caves

National Parks Georgia

Download the Travel App of National Parks Georgia

Diverse canyons and caves of the National Parks Georgia

Georgia, an interesting country in many ways, is distiguished by its ancient history and culture as well as impressive caves and canyons, which with their history and uniqueness promises you an unforgettable trip. Stalactites and stalagmites, with stunning white scaly forms will impress you, the first hanging trail in Georgia, and zip-line over the canyon's breathtaking views. A trip to the caves and canyons of Georgia will fill you with indelible impressions!

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Prometheus Cave

Prometheus Cave is a stunning natural monument, that can be called a country's tourist card. The amazing formations of rocks and the unique stalactites and stalagmites presented here, create a fantasy world. There are 6 halls for tourists in the cave (a total of 22 halls have been discovered). Here you can walk a 1,450 m long trail and at the end of the tour, take a boat ride on the flowing river. Prometheus cave is located in the central part of western Georgia, in the village of Kumistavi, Tskaltubo municipality.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Martvili Canyon

One of the main sights of Georgia - Martvili Canyon is located just 50 km from city Kutaisi and leaves an indelble impression on visitors with its amazing sight. A 700 m-long stone-paved circular footpath starts from the visitor center and takes you to the area of the historical residence of the Dadiani (Georgian Prince). On the way, you will meet 2 bridges, 3 viewing platforms, and a 30-step historical staircase built from large limestone boulders. Visitors also have the opportunity to take a boat ride on a 300 m (one-way) stretch of the Abasha River and enjoy the wonders of nature hidden deep in the canyon.

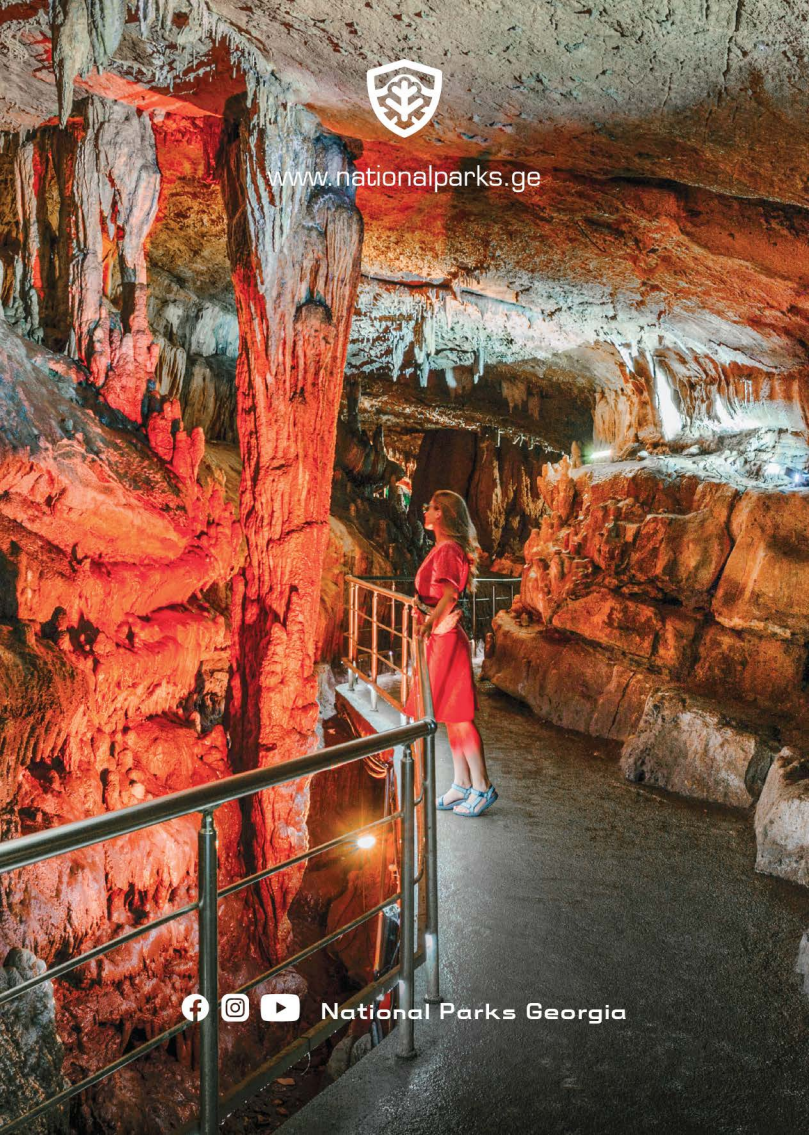

www.nationalparks.ge

National Parks Georgia

Tsalka Canyon

Just 90 km away from the capital of Georgia, Tbilisi, the unique eco-tourism space of Tsalka Canyon is waiting for you. Crossing the 240 meters long glass bridge, you will have the opportunity to unwind at the 360-degree view diamond restaurant. Experience the giant swing and feel the joy of flying. Here you will enjoy the miracle of nature, which will give you the sight of a beautiful watefall descending into the canyon. You will reach the waterfall through a 1.8 km long path, which promises you extraordinary sights along the way. At Tsalka Canyon, you will have the opportunity to spend the night in cozy and exceptionally pleasant villas.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Sataplia Cave

Sataplia, with its monuments of historical and cultural importance, promises an extraordinary sight to every visitor. Starting from the 120-million-year-old prehistoric dinosaur footprints to the karst caves, Sataplia highlights the diversity of Georgia's history and nature. Sataplia is a great place to explore the unique Colchic forest and enjoy beautiful views from the panoramic viewpoint. There are two tourist trails, a museum, and exhibition halls. The cave was discovered in 1925 and has been a major attraction for visitors since then.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Okatse Canyon

Okatse Canyon offers unforgettable adventures to extreme adventure lovers. The first cliff-hanging trail in Georgia leads to the wonderful world of Okatse Canyon, and to get here you have to pass through the Dadiani Historical Park. The path is narrow and circular, travel is only possible in one direction. The 780-meter-long trail is at a height of 152 meters, and the crown of the trail is a panoramic lookout, from which amazing views of the canyon can be seen in the palm of your hand. Okatse Canyon is located in Gordi village of Khoni municipality.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Okatse Waterfall

Okatse waterfall is located just 7 km from Okatse canyon in the village Kinchkha. The emotions caused by the visit will follow you throughout your life. To make the trip even more interesting and extreme, be sure to try the 500 meter zipline descent and recharge with a completely diffeent energy. If admiring nature's beauty is your passion, you should go to Okatse Falls, where you will find a world of amazing, magical, and unforgettable adventures. Okatse waterfall is a cascade of waterfalls flowing in three steps. The height of the first waterfall is about 25 m, and the height of the second waterfall reaches 70 m. The natural monument attracts many tourists.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Tetra Cave

The Tetra Cave is the first ecotourism space in Georgia, where you can taste wine aged in a beautiful and ancient cave, distinguished by its white, partridge-colored spots. For the first time in Georgia and European countries, a quite successful and attractive innovative service was introduced in “Tetra Cave”, which means: - Wine aging at the same, constant temperature of the cave, under natural conditions, and tasting of the wine aged here. Also, it is possible to conduct the speleo-rehabilitation session in the cave. Travel to the 30,000-year-old world, which, in addition to exceptional beauty, is an important archaeological monument and is part of the history of Georgia. About 15,000 archaeological exhibits were found by the researchers in the Tetra cave, including the ulna of a Paleolithic man, which proves that the cave was a primitive human dwelling.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

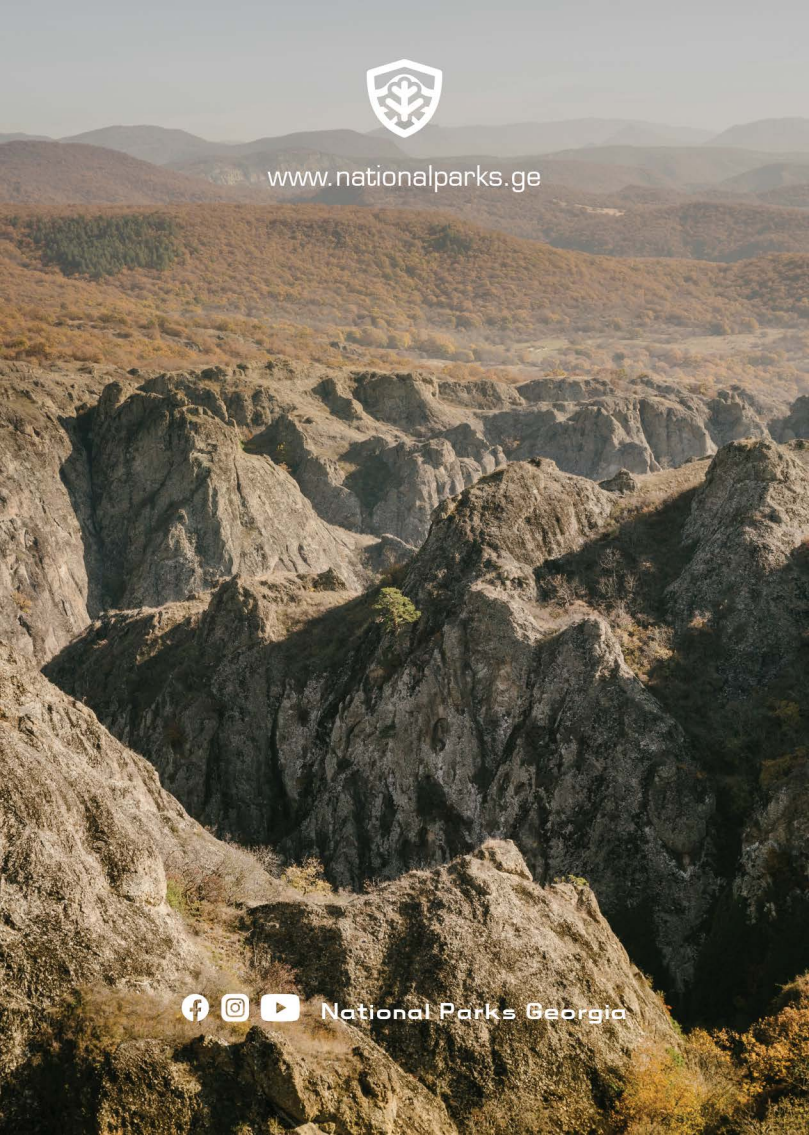

Navenakhevi Cave

Navenakhevi Cave is located near the village of Navenakhevi, 25 km from the historical city of Kutaisi in Georgia. In addition to natural wonders, there is also a well-equipped tourist infrastructure. Navenekhevi cave is a 210 m long, two-story, and 4-hall cave with different and beautiful shapes of stalagmites and stalactites. It is divided into two sections about 30 metres from the entrance. The final point of the cave is a 7 m thick stalagmite.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Samshvilde Canyon

Samshvilde Canyon is a real wonder of nature, which combines not only natural sights but also historical monuments. The drive to the canyon is quite easy. The road takes about one and a half hours from Tbilisi, the capital of Georgia. While visiting the Samshvilde Canyon, you will discover a beautiful canyon-like valley, a river, views, and along with that, historical monuments of different periods, in the form of a village. Visiting here in any season of the year is an extraordinary decision.

www.nationalparks.ge
National Parks Georgia

Birtvisi Canyon

Like Samshvilde, Birtvisi canyon is located near Tbilisi. It is possible to get there by car from Tbilisi in about 1 hour. Monumental rocks of volcanic origin, with narrow passages that are millions of years old, create a beautiful and mystical environment. If you decide to visit Birtvisi Canyon, you should also consider the difficulties. You will definitely need special equipment to go through the canyon. If intense emotions, primeval beauty of nature and difficult roads attract you, the Birtvisi Canyon is definitely the place you have to visit.

www.nationalparks.ge

MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AND AGRICULTURE OF GEORGIA

LEPL AGENCY OF PROTECTED AREAS OF GEORGIA

NATIONAL PARKS GEORGIA